- Lot 1 is withdrawn from the auction.
- Lot 69 Estimate should read: €200-€250
- Lot 77 Estimate should read: €250-€300
- Lot 123 The illustration in the catalogue is incorrect.
- Lot 124 The German Gypsies" card is by McNab of Gorebridge, Scotland, not Goresbridge, Co. Kilkenny.
- Lot 180 Estimate should read: €8,000-€10,000
- Lot 219 Description should read: Should read 1959-1973
- Lot 281 This silver box is a copy of a brass standish, or desk stand, in the collection of the Company of Goldsmiths of Dublin. The standish was presented by Huguenot silversmith David Rummieu (d.1729), quarter brother, to the Company in 1700.
- Copies in silver of Rummieu's standish were produced in the late 19th century by Edmond Johnson, master warden of the Company of Goldsmiths of Dublin.
- This example is a previously unknown version produced in early 20th century Birmingham. Whyte's would like to thank Dr Thomas Sinsteden for his assistance in cataloguing this lot.
- Lot 292 Estimate should read: €250-€300
- Lot 390 Conan Doyle's address on the note should be 'Mena House, near Cairo'.
- Lot 300 is withdrawn from the auction.
